

Copyright (c) 2012 Thomson Reuters/West
Georgia State Court, Gwinnett County.
GOODMAN A/K/A STANLEY v. DAVIS
03-C-04273-S4

DATE OF INCIDENT: October, 2002

DATE OF FILING: May, 2003

DATE OF TRIAL: December, 2004

TOPIC:

LIABILITY:

General: LANE CHANGE, DEFENDANT ADMITTED LIABILITY

Specific: Defendant Changing

Outcome: Plaintiff Verdict

Total Verdict: $9610

Claimed Past Medical: $11,000

Claimed Lost Wages: $740

ATTORNEY:

Plaintiff Jason A. Craig, Vidalia, GA

Defendant: Pamela Sue Webb, Atlanta, GA

JUDGE: Joseph Iannazzone

STATE: Georgia

COUNTY: Gwinnett

PRIMARY INJURY: Cervical / Lumbar Strain

PLAINTIFF:

Sex: Female

Age: 24

DEFENDANT:

Type: Single Individual, 92 year-old driver

Sex: Female

FACTS:

A 24-year-old female alleged that she suffered cervical and lumbar strains when her vehicle was sideswiped by the female defendant's vehicle as the defendant changed lanes on a city street. Plaintiff followed defendant into the post office parking lot and waited for defendant to return to her vehicle. When plaintiff confronted defendant about the alleged accident, defendant denied hitting plaintiff's vehicle and drove home. Plaintiff called the police, who went to defendant's home and cited her for following too closely and leaving the scene of the accident.